The training will include a review of current IDVA legislation and highlight areas of state and federal law likely to be included on the ICDVP certification exam. The featured presenter, Jan Russell, J.D., ICDVP, has been working in the field of domestic violence for more than 25 years. In 1994 Jan created a program within the Chicago Police Department-the only program of its kind in the country-to provide direct services to victims of domestic violence who are abused by members of the department. She continues to serve as an advocate in that program. Jan is a highly rated trainer on domestic violence issues and has provided information to more than 15,000 professionals including police officers, lawyers, and advocates.

Other exam topics covered by the training include the dynamics of domestic violence, historical and feminist perspectives, and serving domestic violence victims. The training will also include a segment focusing on successful strategies for standardized test taking.

6.5 CEUs will be awarded. Registration deadline is August 11, 2010. SSFS is a licensed continuing education unit sponsor for social work, counseling, ICDVP and CPAIP. For more information, visit www.ssfs1.org and click on the "ICDVP Test Prep" link or contact Brianne at 708.794.2140 x302.

SSFS does not guarantee that attending this workshop will result in becoming certified; it is simply a review of information.
